HOW TO ROB BANKS. LEGALLY.

Make 21% On Your Money. Guaranteed No Risk By The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.
Earn $100,000 or more with deposits of less than $20.

By Louis Kennelworth
Attorney at Law

My name is Louis Kennelworth, and I'm a lawyer. If what I'm about to tell you were not 100% true, I'd get disbarred and probably thrown into jail. So obviously every word, every piece of advice I have put into print is absolutely true and completely legal.

In these hard times of inflation, we need all the help we can get.

The bank presidents will hate me for this. But I'm going to lay it right on the line. Whatever amount of money ($10. a week or $1,000 a week) you put into your savings account I can show you how to double, triple, even quadruple what it would ordinarily earn in interest. (All without risking a single penny.)

Crazy? Not at all. But that's only the beginning. Here are a couple of other amazing facts I've uncovered.

★ Amazing fact: You can actually earn triple the amount of savings in one bank as in another. Even though both banks offer the same exact rate of interest.

★ Amazing fact: You can earn 6¼% interest on an ordinary passbook savings account.

★ Amazing fact: You can actually use your credit cards to make extra money.

★ Amazing fact: Your dollars can be earning interest on weekends... after you've already withdrawn them.

How on Earth are these things possible? Simply by following the easy-to-understand plan I've outlined in what I believe is one of the most informative, useful money-making books ever published.

This is the book that tells it all. All the important proven financial secrets you need to stay ahead of inflation. Many of these secrets are so fantastic you won't believe they're possible until you put them into practice.

Just to give you an idea:

You can actually pay bills by check from your savings account and still earn interest on money that isn't there.

And did you know: If you know how, you can actually make more money banking by mail than you can in person?

Now in case you're worried about the banks. Please don't! Believe me they can afford it. Banks make billions with depositor's money. They make far more lending your money to commercial borrowers and mortgagors than they ever pay to you, their depositors.

It's that fat cushion between what the banks get and what they pay that enables banks to offer you "inducements" such as compound interest, high rates in special issues, day-of-deposit-to-day-of withdrawal accounts, bonus days, bank gifts, and so on.

Earn $100,000 or more with deposits of less than $20.

All you have to do is know how to take advantage of these "inducements" and the fine print in banking laws (and believe me I show you how easy it is!). You can pile up a fortune — actually $100,000 or more, on what amounts to weekly deposits of less than $20. And, the beautiful part is: You're not speculating! You're not gambling! You're not risking one red cent! Because you're putting your money in the safest place in the world: An American bank. And, even if it should fail (which is almost impossible today), your savings are protected by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

The only question that remains is: How long can you afford not to do something about it? All you need to know is How! And it's all right there in my book. The information, the methods and techniques, the step-by-step game plan. It's all there for you! In simple straight forward language, complete with illustrations. Easy to understand for anyone with a fifth grade education.

Powerful interests would love to "Coverup" this information.

Obviously this is a book the banks would love to prohibit. Many powerful interests would love to suppress and "coverup" this information if they could. But fortunately it's still a free country. And if there's a way you can fight inflation with much bigger returns on your savings, you're entitled to know about it.

Now at last, I've made this inside information available to you through THE INSIDER'S MAILBOX. The cost to you is only $10.00, and you don't risk a single penny of that.

NO RISK GUARANTEE. YOU CAN'T LOSE ONE PENNY.

If my book, How To Rob Banks. Legally., hasn't more than paid for itself many times over in just 30 days, return it to me for a full money back refund.

*e Vignec,

Fitness is my business

I RECOMMEND BULLWORKER
BECAUSE IT'S FAST, IT'S EASY AND IT REALLY WORKS!

Most men know they're not getting enough exercise to keep their bodies in good shape.

However unless their careers depend on it (like professional athletes, actors, etc.), it's been my experience that most men will not continue with a regular training program long enough for it to do them much good unless the training is fast, easy and shows results right away.

Bullworker training gets a top score on all three counts:

—it's fast: each exercise takes only 7 seconds and the complete workout can be done in about five minutes

—it's easy: most men between 15 and 65 in good general health can run through the full program without getting tired

—you see your improvement right from the very first day on the built-in Powermeter. After about two or three weeks of regular training, most men can measure an extra inch or two of muscle on the shoulders, the chest, the biceps—and an inch or two less flab around the waistline.

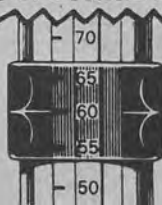

And that's just the beginning: there are specialized exercises for building-up or trimming down any part of your body you want to. What's more, since Bullworker training is progressive, you perform better each time. Yet the training always seems easy since with every workout your strength increases by about 1%—that's an increase of up to 50% in just three months, and I've seen many men go on to double and even triple their strength.

It's my opinion that Bullworker is the most advanced home trainer on the market today. I use it and recommend it to any man who wants to get back into shape fast.

TWO WINNERS

I just read SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975 and it was truly the most exciting issue ever—because of the fabulously beautiful girls engaged in female combat in the pictures and story inside (“You Be The Judge!”).

I don’t recall seeing two better looking women really pulling hair and tearing into each other than this pair. This has to be the most stimulating and arousing article of them all. Both Courtney and Tara are truly beautiful women and endowed with super figures. The pictures are perfect—the action is incomparable. The skimpy bikinis revealed their fabulous figures.

Both these girls are winners!

JAMES E. BIGNALL
Grand Rapids, MI

TWO ARE TOPS

The two beautiful girls wrestling in “You Be The Judge” (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975) should both become regular apartment house wrestlers.

I’d like to see how Courtney and Tara would do against the champion Cynara. Tell Dave Moll he’ll be making a big mistake if he doesn’t allow these two girls to become apartment house wrestlers.

A battle between two beautiful girls is tremendous!

JIM BACONE
Hamburg, N.Y.

BEAUTIFUL BEASTS

I am presenting my opinion on the apartment house wrestling match in “You Be the Judge” (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975).

I don’t know what standards Dave Moll uses for his girls, but I think these two—Courtney and Tara—certainly qualify at least on the score of killer instinct and looks!

Never have I read an account of such female savagery. May I congratulate the editorial staff. They coordinated the text and photos so skillfully that each supplemented the other beautifully.

Our readers were asked to be the judges as to whether the great apartment house wrestling battle between Courtney and Tara (above and below) made them worthy of joining the sport. And did our readers write in!

As to a very brief evaluation of the girls, there is no doubt in my mind of Tara’s ability. She won the match decisively and deserves a place in apartment house wrestling.

But her opponent, Courtney, though attractive and certainly game, does not quite have what it takes. However, I was extremely impressed with her beautiful right uppercut which put Tara on the seat of her pants.

EDWARD LOVE
Dover, N.J.

NO QUESTION ABOUT IT

These are my conclusions on the match between Tara and Courtney (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975).

This is the kind of match where you can separate the women from the girls. No doubt about it, Tara is all woman: beautiful, sexy, strong, cunning, and without pity for her inferior opponent. Also, this match proved Tara has all the class needed for being a member of the apartment house wrestling group.

At the end of the match we saw Tara in the air, finishing Courtney. At this awful sight, I thought about Cynara’s advice to Jenny, “That’s what you get,

EASTERN FANS CRY...

"PEDRO COME HOME!"

"WHERE'S PEDRO?"

That's the question eastern fans are asking more and more these days. They miss Pedro. After all, the very popular Puerto Rican star became a regular fixture in the east for over five years. Now eastern mat crowds haven't seen Pedro for awhile and they're demanding promoters negotiate his return.

Morales currently wrestles in the northern California area. His wars against Moondog Mayne, the Von Brauners and The Brute have already become classics. And don't be surprised if he doesn't return east too soon.

"We refuse to let Pedro go," noted one California promoter. "We'll do our best to keep him here. Pedro is doing what the fans want. He's helping Pat Patterson and Peter Maivia wipe out the, notorious rule breakers.

"I can understand how the eastern fans and promoters must feel, though. Pedro hasn't wrestled here in many years. Now that we've got him, we want to keep him!"

If Moondog Mayne has his way Morales will be on the next airplane back east.

"Look!" Moondog blasts. "Since Morales came west I've had nothing but a big pain in the rear. He's a rotten punk who thinks he can beat me. But I showed him. And now I intend to run him out of town. If the fans in the east want Morales back, they're showing they are not too bright. I never thought they were anyway."

"I agree with Moondog," adds The Brute. "Morales is nothing here. He may be a big shot in the east, but I hear from Moondog the fans in the east have serious psychological problems. They're all nuts with a disease called 'Morales.'"

What about Pedro's feelings?

"I am very glad the promoters are fighting over me," he says happily. "And I'm equally happy the fans in California have given me their support."

"I'm not going to lie. I do want to head back east eventually. I miss a lot of my friends, but more important than that, I want to wrestle Bruno for the title if he still has it when I return there."

It seems that is one of the most important things on Pedro's mind.

"You know," he adds, "the match I had against Bruno was one of my best. It was a real pleasure to wrestle scientifically for a change. You can't do that against Moondog or The Brute. It would be a real welcome change to wrestle him."

"Besides the match against Bruno, I also want to do battle with the guys Bruno's been wrestling. I like challenges and it would be a real big challenge to try to beat these men. Remember, I wrestle for my wonderful fans. I want to help Bruno and Chief Jay Strongbow rid the area of Waldo Von Erich and that two-faced Spiros Arion, among others."

Just how long will it be, though, before Pedro heads east?

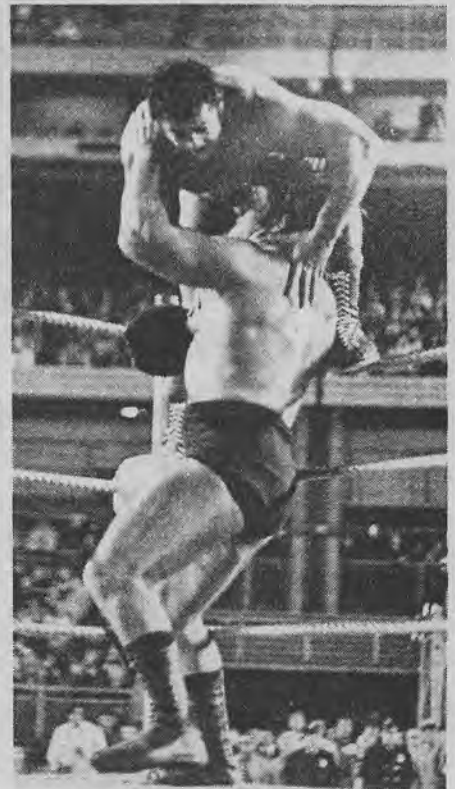

"That's hard to say," he noted. "I have a lot of commitments to take care of in California. I don't want to leave my new friends. It'll take a little time. I just hope the eastern promoters won't get too impatient if I can't get there when they want me. It's very important to return to the east. I guess even if I have to travel back and forth from east to west I'll do it."

The promoters in the east do want Pedro back. They're getting letters requesting his prompt return. Here's just a sample:

"Dear W.W.W.F.:

Pedro Morales and Bruno Sammartino are my favorites. I was really happy when both of them were in this area. I love Bruno and do not hesitate to say he is great also. But what about Pedro? Has he been forgotten?

"All my friends and I miss him. If there is any way to get Pedro to

BY ANDRE THE GIANT

AFTER WRESTLING AROUND the world, a man can find himself with a lot of enemies. However, it was easy for me to choose 10 grapplers as the ones I'd most like to drive out of wrestling.

They're very different men, and each one has a special reason as to why his very presence in the sport makes me outraged. This is the first time I've announced publicly my intention to rid wrestling of these men. However, it's about time I warned these wrestlers I mean to show them no mercy when we meet.

First off, a man to whom this will come as no surprise is Don Leo Jonathan. A huge man in his own right, he was the first man with whom I ever feuded. In bouts against him I went totally berserk with rage and hatred. Jonathan was the first veteran who wanted to more than beat me—he wanted to humiliate me. I'll never forgive him for that. Someday, I'm going to repay him for making a young wrestler aching and miserable.

Sooner or later, it's going to come down to either Baba the Giant or me. The second man on my list is the tallest Andre wants to get the Blackjacks in a handicap match. He believes if one man can batter the two of them, they'll be too humiliated to ever wrestle anyone else!

There are 10 men to whom Andre the Giant issues this ultimatum: "Beware! I am after your hide!"

Above: Andre tortures Ernie Ladd in a toehold as he hurls his huge body hard onto Ladd's leg. The giant grappler wants to meet Ernie again—in a battle to the finish! Right: Ox Baker mauls Sailor Art Thomas. For this and other crimes against scientific grapplers over the years, Andre wants to drive Baker out of wrestling!

Memo To Chief Jay Strongbow:

HEAVEN HELPS THOSE WHO HELP THEMSELVES

THE CROWD LEAPED to its feet as Chief Jay Strongbow bodypressed Spiros Arion. For 20 minutes, the pair had torn into each other like warring jungle animals. Now, a strange turn of events seemed destined to give the victory to Strongbow.

Only moments before, Arion had lifted his foe high into the air, preparing to smash Jay in an atomic drop. But the popular Strongbow lashed his foot into the ropes. When the ropes snapped back, Arion went stumbling.

Spiros' head met sharply against the skull of the referee. The two men crumpled to the canvas from the force of the collision. Jay was slightly stunned also, but he still had control over his senses. His wrestler's instincts told him to leap upon his fallen opponent. This he did, bodypressing Arion far longer than the time needed to chalk up a victory.

However, the referee was unconscious and couldn't count the Greek grappler out. Strongbow got off his opponent to aid the official. He did nothing, though, to insure Arion would remain unconscious!

Jay's sole thought was the safety of the referee. He administered to the man and tried to return him to consciousness. Worrying over the health of the stricken man, Strongbow completely ignored Arion. It would be his undoing.

Jay was in the midst of summoning the arena doctor when he felt Arion's foot slam in the small of his neck. Strongbow went careening across the canvas, groggy from the powerful blow. Arion's lips twisted into a cruel smile as he continued his attack.

Jay was still trying to clear the cobwebs from his brain when agony made his body limp. Spiros had kicked

Al Costello (right) learned the tools of the manager's trade, as might be expected from a man who was a member of the great tag team, the Kangaroos. Al is expert at grabbing Ernie Ladd's trunks from behind (above left) and choking the huge grappler with his boomerang (below). However, Ali also has to take a manager's lumps, as he discovers when he's attacked by Bob Ellis (above right), Ladd's partner and a bitter enemy of Costello for many years.

THE BIRTH OF A ROOKIE MANAGER

AFTER YEARS OF being one of the most famous and accomplished wrestling tag team in the sport's history, the Fabulous Kangaroos decided to go their separate ways. It may yet prove to be one of the most important decisions determining wrestling's future.

Don Kent decided to wrestle on his own for awhile. Manager George Cannon took over at the helm of the Mongols tag team. And Al Costello has given up wrestling to become what he calls "a rookie manager" for the Love brothers.

"As a Kangaroo, I've had two of the best managers, Wild Red Berry and George Cannon," Al says. "So I've had two of the best teachers. A guy would have to be a fool not to learn from these two great managerial geniuses."

Al is no fool. Far from it. He can talk for hours on the duties, responsibilities, and cunning of managers. Little nuances most would consider unimportant are scrupulously examined by this serious, ambitious man.

"The field of the manager," Al claims, "is really a frontier. There are many areas which have gone unexplored because managers didn't think it was necessary. I've seen the groundwork laid down by two of the best, my previous managers, and I'm exploring from there.

"I need challenges. Managing a tag team for me is a great challenge. And the Love Brothers are so good on their own they triple the challenge for me to try and make better.

"You see, any great tag team has its own personality. The men have been working together like a

Above: The New Infernos, standing proudly with their manager, J.C. Dykes, have been among those invited to participate in the masked battle royal. Like all the others, the tag team has not accepted.

THERE'S COMES A time when most professional wrestlers believe themselves to be the best in the business. Some use this belief to bolster their determination to become champions. For others, it drives them to a state of obsession. Super Destroyer is at this point.

Listening to him rave about his latest scheme to be officially declared the world's greatest masked wrestler is a terrifying experience. Words seem to tumble over each other as they spill out of his mouth with furious speed. Even through the mask, his eyes could be seen growing wide and gleaming.

"I can see it now!" Super Destroyer shouts, though the room is small and his listener is no more than six feet away. "Every masked wrestler of any consequence will be standing on the canvas in this incredible masked wrestler battle royall! Every guy in that ring will be putting his career on the line. Because as soon as he's thrown over the ropes, he'll be forced to unmask!

"Can't you just see it in your mind's eye? Here are all of these masked grapplers, knowing it is a now-or-never situation. There would be no second chance, no tomorrow. It would be the greatest match in history!

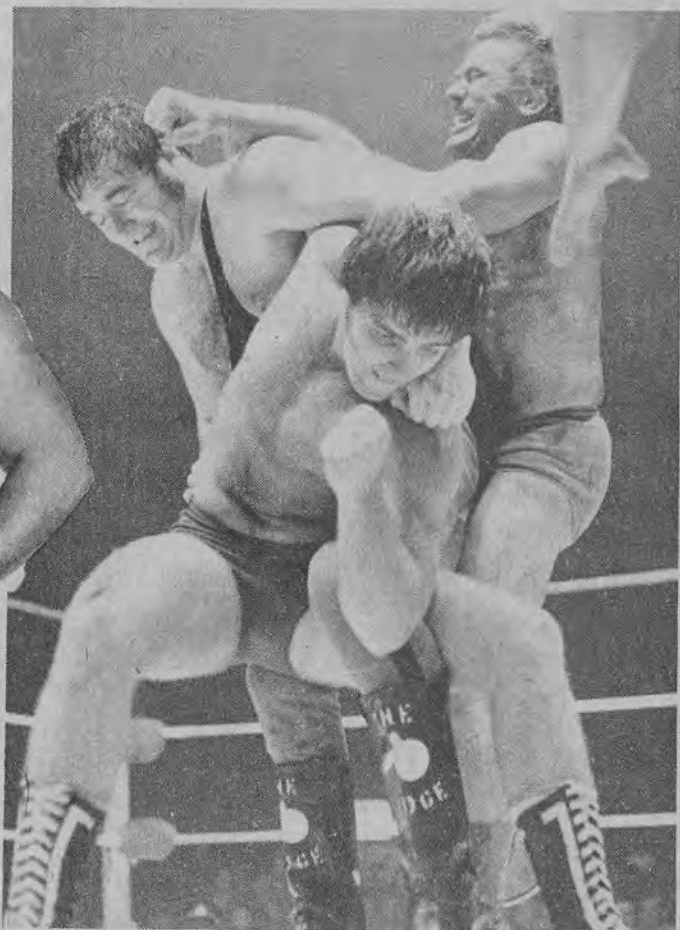

"Imagine the drama when Mr. Wrestling II has to take off his mask. There'll be tears in Mil Mascaras' eyes as he reveals his face and destroys his career. And Masked Avenger will be laughed at when I personally throw him over the ropes!

"And, of course, the crowning moment will be the end. There I'll stand, alone and masked. I'll not only be the best masked wrestler, I will be the only masked wrestler! Then there'll be no doubt who's the best masked wrestler in the world. In the greatest match in wrestling history, I'll be the greatest victor.

"Unmasked, they'll have to come out of the dressing room to worship before me. One by one, they'll shake my hand, if not bow before me! Super Destroyer, the greatest masked wrestler in the entire world!

TTLE ROYAL"

Two magnificently proportioned athletes, Edouard Carpentier and Raymond Rougeau (left), make a great tag team of scientific wrestlers. However, when a man uses illegal tactics, like Michel Dubois when he snuck up on Rougeau, Carpentier will bend the rules to save his ensnared young partner (above).

CARPENTIER + ROUGEAU = DYNAMITE!

IT'S AS IF the gods of Olympus once more decided to use mortals for their sport. There can be no other way to describe the breathtaking charisma of Edouard Carpentier and Raymond Rougeau, a new tag team destined to battle its way to wrestling legend.

It would be hard to find two more perfectly proportioned athletes than Edouard and Raymond. Each man's simplest movement exudes power and agility. Together, they seem to dwarf the abilities of all who oppose them.

It seemed natural for these two to seek each other out. They work so perfectly together. Actually, neither man wanted to team with the other in the beginning.

"When the promoters first approached me with the idea of teaming with Raymond," Edouard admits, "I was against the idea. I admired him for a long time and thought he was an excellent, superb young athlete. However, I didn't think his teaming with me would help him.

"When one enjoys the kind of reputation I have, for which I'm very grateful, it can become a burden to a tag team partner. I was afraid Raymond, being younger, would become overshadowed by me. I've seen it happen before. I didn't want it to happen to a man as remarkable as Raymond. My fame gives me a responsibility to protect other

Through the years Edouard Carpentier has teamed with some of the all time greats of wrestling. Now, in young Raymond Rougeau, he has found his perfect partner wrestlers."

Raymond also worried about teaming with a man who is a legend throughout the world.

"There's only one Edouard Carpentier!" Raymond exclaims. "A man with that much ability deserves a great deal from his partner, not the least of which is a great deal of experience. I didn't think I deserved a man of Carpentier's greatness.

"It looked like we'd never get together, which at that time was fine with both of us, until the promoter forced us to meet once. Edouard told me his fears about overshadowing my contribution to the team. And I told him I thought I wasn't good enough to be his partner.

"Well, Edouard told me I had more than enough skill to be his partner. And I explained that being his partner would be so great an honor it would overrule any other consideration.

"There's no other reason then," Edouard replied, 'why we shouldn't be partners!'"

"And that moment," Raymond concludes, "was the happiest of my career!"

So the two began to train in earnest. They'd meet daily in the Ann Casey's comeback is now moving ahead at full throttle. And Ann is now ready for her biggest test—meeting Fabulous Moolah!

ANN CASEY

NOW!

On the comeback trail, Ann overwhelms the always tough Dottie Downs with a perfect leg scissors (left). Later, Dottie is caught in a stepover toehold (above) and the middle of a pile-up (below).

THE REFEREE RAISES the winner's arm in victory and the fans explode with cheers. Ann Casey won another match on her whirlwind comeback trail.

It looks like nothing can stop Ann this time from reaching the pinnacle of her profession. Her skills, honed to perfection by astonishing dedication, have never been more accomplished. A few months after it was agreed she'd never wrestle again, Ann Casey is ready to wrestle Fabulous Moolah for the women's wrestling championship of the world!

"When your career looks finished," Ann says, "then you realize what's important. Time is short. I've been given a little extra and it won't be wasted."

"There's only one thing of importance in my life right now—winning the title. I can't help but believe I was given this time for a purpose. It would be criminal not to direct my entire life toward getting the championship.

I don't plan to wait around for the chance, either. Everything I've done since getting back into wrestling has been aimed at forcing Moolah to wrestle me. I'm the United States woman championship, a title I'm extremely proud to own. It should prove beyond a shadow of a doubt that I'm the first contender for Moolah's crown.

"I'm asking SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING to publish my challenge to Moolah. Time is too precious for me to wait until Moolah thinks my time has come. My time is now! I suffered enough to learn that!"

Ann spends most of her time these days preparing herself physically and mentally for her eventual confrontation with Moolah, a bout she hopes will take place within the next six months. When the beautiful brunette isn't honing her great body to perfection, she's watching films of Moolah wrestle. Some matches she's seen 30 or 40 times, viewed entirely in slow motion. And Ann's cunning mind is analyzing every frame of film.

"Moolah is great," she admits, but quickly adds, "she's also human. No one is perfect. Great wrestlers are those who can overcome their weaknesses by developing their strengths. The best wrestlers can hide their weaknesses entirely. But that doesn't mean the weaknesses don't exist."

"There are five areas in which Moolah is weak. She knows it as well as anyone else, probably better than anyone else. She avoids certain things like the plague, knowing she can't defend against them. What I have to do, and it's an incredibly difficult task, is to force Moolah into a position where her inabilities are exposed. Continued

Ann proves her power by hurling Dottie high in the air (above) and over the ropes (above left). Her fine agility is shown as she traps her foe in a brutal toehold (below). Most important, though, she can still absorb punishment—and Dottie can dish it out (left)!

"Moolah is constantly on her guard to avoid these situations. I'll show you films which prove she's a genius at forcing opponents to her strengths. I can show you at least dozen films where she was doomed until her foe is tricked into wrestling against Moolah's strength. Moolah is the greatest wrestling tactician alive—male or female.

"But no one is perfect. Over the years, she's fallen into a predictable pattern. It's complex, and chances are she doesn't know it herself. But I've discovered it and plan to use it against her.

"I really can't see myself losing once I get a match against Moolah. When the battle is through, I'll be wearing the championship belt."

However, Ann's repeated requests for a match against Moolah have fallen on deaf ears. The champion claims to be looking forward to a battle against the challenger, but is reluctant to name a date.

"Of course," the legendary titleholder says, "Casey deserves a chance at my title. I've always been more than happy to pit my skill against the challenger. She doesn't worry me more than any other girl grappling today.

"Like everyone else, I'm happily astonished at Ann's successful comeback. She's a remarkable human being. Except for beating me, I wish her all the luck in the world.

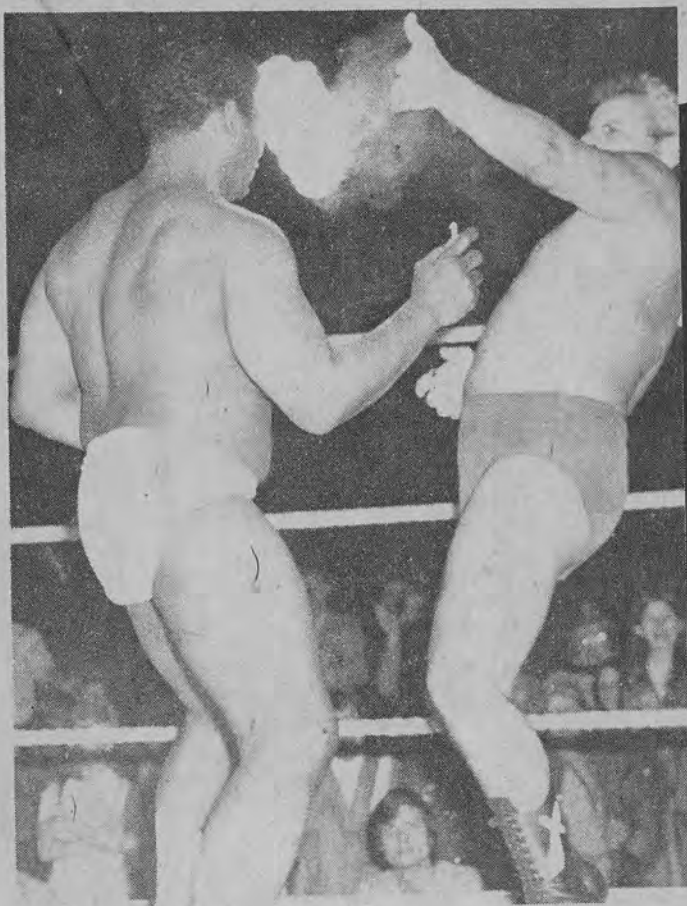

"I've heard her claims as to discovering a new way to beat me. Every champion learns to live with these claims. I hear someone say it about once every three days. I've been able to make liars out of all of them. Ann will be no different."

However, if Moolah is as confident as she says, why doesn't she quickly give Ann the chance to fail as all the others have?

"There are a lot of problems," the wily champion says, "which first have to be ironed out. The many reasons would only bore your readers. But when we settle these problems, the match will take place. You can be sure of that!"

Ann Casey sits and waits for Moolah to accept her challenge. When the champion finally gets into the arena, Ann will take the same determination which allowed her to comeback from serious injury and channel it towards the title.

It'll be one helluva battle! □

COMMISSIONS

"IF YOU KEEP

THROWING FIRE--
YOU'RE BANNED FOR LIFE!"

It seems only a matter of time before wrestling commissions decide once and for all to put out The Sheik's fire FOREVER

THE SEPARATE CRIES of outrage are beginning to unite a single scream of revenge. The time is approaching when The Sheik may finally be banned!

For years people have implored the various wrestling commissions to ban this wrestler for his hurling of flames at opponents, burning them horribly. The list of men who bear the scars from Sheik's fire includes the greatest wrestlers of our age. The list also includes many who were burned too horribly to ever wrestle again.

Up until now, the pleadings of thousands have fallen on deaf ears. No commissioner has ever banned Sheik from an area for throwing fire. This man seemed unable to be stopped by any law or rule. Commissioners were accused of cowardice and of being bribed by Sheik's managers, Eddie Creatchman and Abdullah Farouk.

The truth is far more complicated. Every so often the commissioners would meet in secret to try to figure out some way to halt The Sheik's flaming rampage. And every time they would run into a roadblock of legality and consequences.

"Whenever someone is banned, for whatever reason," one commissioner explained, "we have to be very careful to isolate his case from the rest of the wrestlers. If we make the reason for banning too general, innocent wrestlers may find themselves in jeopardy. The rules are there primarily to protect the innocent wrestlers, not to punish the guilty.

"The problem is difficult because we don't know how he throws fire. If Sheik took our ruling to a court of law, they'd have to take his side. Unless we can ban the fire-throwing mechanism, we have no case against him. He could sue us for a fortune—and win!

"So we couldn't ban the fire. That meant we had to have a general rule to ban Sheik. However, every rule we devised also hampered another wrestler. We couldn't stop Sheik without involving innocent victims."

While the commissioners' hands were legally shackled, they discovered the other wrestlers hesitant to help them in their quest to stop Sheik's flamethrowing.

Johnny Powers, who hates Sheik as much as anyone and has felt the Arab's flames scorch his flesh, tells why so few wrestlers want Sheik banned.

"First of all," Johnny explains, "it goes against the grain of any athlete to retreat behind a commission ruling. We like to think we can handle any problem ourselves, in our own way. We wrestlers feel action among ourselves is the only way to solve a problem.

"Secondly, the more rules you have, the worse it becomes for scientific wrestlers. The rulebreakers will ignore them anyway. All you'll be doing is giving scientific wrestlers a tougher time.

"Sheik is unique, a special problem which occurs maybe once every century. Rules must be made for general reasons, not against one wrestler.

"The only solution is to discover how he throws fire. That's the only way he can be legally banned."

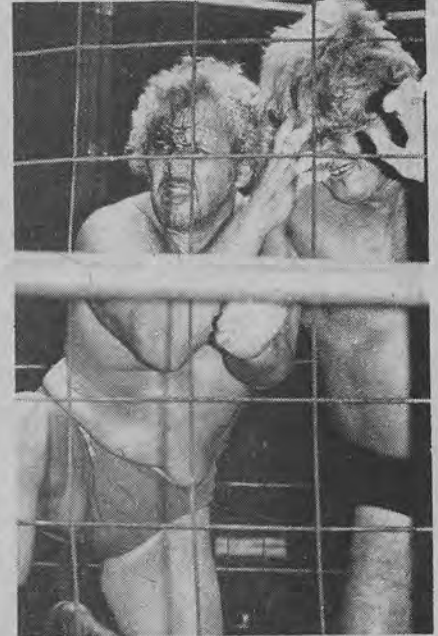

However, Powers worries about Sheik becoming so reprehensible that people will be willing to ignore the dangers of a sloppy, general rule just to ban the man.

"I can see," Johnny says, "within a year, the outcry against him will be so great the commissions will do anything not going to stop there, though. Once the commissions get their first taste of blood, they're going to like it. And that means a lot of other wrestlers are going to be banned."

One thing almost everyone agrees upon is that any new flamethrowing which ends a career or threatens a life will be the straw which breaks the camel's back. Wrestling's reputation won't be able to tolerate this situation any longer.

Temporarily blinded, Johnny Valentine is at Sheik's mercy in a burning cage (above).

Everyone says the only way Sheik can salvage his career is to stop throwing fire. It would not only save himself but other wrestlers who'd be injured by a general banning rule. Only he can take the pressure off the commissions. However, that seems to be a slim possibility, according to Sheik's manager, Eddie Creatchman.

There's not a commission in the world," Creatchman contends, "with enough guts to ban Sheik! He's a superstar, a legend in his own time. They're not big enough to beat that.

"Let them try to stop us! I'll welcome the battle, and so will Sheik. In less than a week we'll have them running for cover with their tails between their legs! Sheik can defeat any wrestler—and any commission the wrestlers get to do their dirty work!"

Sheik and the wrestling commissions are headed on a collision course. Only the future knows who will triumph is such a confrontation takes place. And chances for such a meeting grow more likely every day! □ to ban Sheik. All it's going to take is one more outrageous flamethrowing incident for the regulation to be rushed into effect.

"The public won't stand for Sheik's tactics much longer. If wrestlers can't stop it, and so far we haven't been able to, then it's up to the commissions. At least that's what the public believes.

"Sooner or later," Johnny says, "Sheik will be banned. I can't see him going on like this for more than one more year. However, the means used to bring him down could take the sport with him!"

Not all wrestlers believe as Powers does. A few think banning Sheik, by any means possible, is long overdue. Others, like Bruiser, are against commissions banning anyone!

"There are several states," Brusier says, "where I still can't wrestle, even though I've changed my tactics. Once you're banned, it's virtually impossible to be reinstated.

"Commissions are the last places in the world where a guy can expect forgiveness. Once you're on the blacklist, nobody can help you. It's the most horrible thing that can happen to anyone. There's no way back.

"Banning is just a rotten practice that solves nothing. That's not the answer to combat Sheik. The only way Sheik can or should be stopped is by other wrestlers. And I can't wait to do the job!

"The sad thing is Sheik will probably be banned from wrestling within two years, at the most. And it's

ONE BY ONE, the wrestlers climbed through the ropes. Each one gazed longingly at the check pasted to the top of a pole standing in the corner. Each was willing to do whatever necessary to make the money his.

They had all come to participate in a Russian roulette pole battle royal.

Any wrestler who wished to collect the check for several thousand dollars would first have to hurl all his opponents over the ropes. Then, the last remaining grappler would climb the pole and retrieve his prize.

However, this unique battle royal had another facet to make it more exciting. Along with the normal surely, the crowd of wrestlers thinned out. Alliances were made and broken with mind-boggling swiftness. As each beaten wrestler limped back to the dressing room, he looked sadly over his head at the check he would never receive.

Eventually, all that remained were the two midgets, El Gran Markus, Gordo, and Joe LeDuc. The five athletes stared at each other cautiously, waiting for someone to make the first move. Littlebrook was the first to break, rushing at Bobo. He caught his midget foe perfectly, and then there were four.

Gordo and El Gran Markus then decided to ignore the remaining midget and doubleteam LeDuc. That was their big mistake. Each grabbed one of Joe's arms and started dragging him to the ropes. Littlebrook, when they were near the ring apron, dove under El Gran Markus' legs, tripping the masked grappler and sending him flying over the ropes and crashing to the cement with a thud.

It didn't take LeDuc and Littlebrook long to get rid of Gordo. That left the midget and LeDuc. The two men stared at each other and then

"It's in this kind of match," Lord Littlebrook declared, "that midgets can gain the kind of respect we deserve. Bobo Johnson and I are willing to take our licks against the big guys for the chance of pulling off an upset. If either of us are still in the running near the end, it's going to be big news for midget athletes all over the world."

"Only against the big guys can midgets be regarded as serious athletes."

And it's that reason why two midgets joined the ranks of those who were ready to battle for the great prize pasted atop the pole. When the bell sounded to begin the match, history was made!

For more than 30 minutes, wrestlers slammed into each other with brutal abandon. Powerful athletes bashed each other, trying to send victims hurtling over the ropes. One by one, slowly but "Need a lift up the pole?" he asked, and Littlebrook also smiled.

"Thanks," the midget replied and allowed himself to be lifted to the top of the pole. He took down the check and handed it to LeDuc.

"We split it 50/50," Joe said, and they shook hands.

Lord Littlebrook then became the first midget to win a share of a battle royal purse—and he won it in the first Russian roulette battle royal! □

SIZE OF YOUR HAT COUNTS"

APARTMENT HOUSE WRESTLING SHOCKER!

THE POPPING OF champagne corks occasionally interrupted the soft murmur of conversation. Many of those present were returning to this elaborate Chicago penthouse for the third time. Once again, wealthy sophisticates of New York and Los Angeles had gathered for the apartment house wrestling championship.

It was in this penthouse where Cynara twice defended her championship. The second match had ended with both her and her opponent, Denise, completely nude and yet still battling like tawny jungle savages. Those present expected this match to be even more exciting—and far more brutal.

even Cynara's

A group of the New York fans had already invested $35,000 to turn their beautiful challenger, Salome, into the ultimate apartment house wrestler. The Los Angeles fans knew this, but they also knew what a magnificent animal was their champion. Each contingent had explicit faith in its splendid woman. And each was willing to put its money on the abilities of that favorite.

Estimates of the money wagered on this match come into six figures. No one in the audience couldn't afford to cover the entire sum without blinking. And winnings were immediately squandered in a wild celebration after the battle.

As for the young ladies, each was treated royally in the hours before the battle. Both women had a private bedroom and maid to cater to their every need. No queen could have been more regally accommodated as were these two hellcats. When they would finally walk barefoot onto the plush carpet, both would be at their physical and mental peak.

While waiting for the match to begin, the girls talked about their plans of attack.

"I'm going after that paid pet from the moment this thing starts," Cynara snarled, "And I'm not going to let up for an instant! I'm going to break her spirit early. She's going to learn all her pampering can't help her here. I'm not the only girl who wants to see her squirm. Her getting that much money makes me sick, as it does every other girl I know."

"I'm going to have her groveling for mercy in five minutes. She's going to be beaten and humiliated. And I don't care how I do it!"

"I'll admit I've been practicing some pretty nasty maneuvers. But this is a championship bout and I'm the champion." Cynara's face became soft and vulnerable as she added, "All I am is the champion. Nothing else I've ever been has mattered."

If Salome was nervous about finally confronting the woman she had been selected and preened to defeat, she showed no signs of it save for clenching her fists until the knuckles turned white. The brunette beauty talked slowly and without hatred. She had come to do a job and prove she was worth the small fortune invested in her.

"Cynara's a brawler," Salome observed, "and therefore sloppy. She's a strong girl but badly lacking in finesse. I'm ready to give her some credit, but I'm not all that worried. I know I'm better than she is."

Salome realized losing could mean the end of her rather large income from her backers.

"Cynara's wrestling for glory," Salome said, a chilling harshness creeping into her voice. "I'm battling for my livelihood."

Beneath both girls' confident poses lay a core of desperation. It was this desperation which would drive the woman to tear each other apart in a frenzy of fury.

Left: With a champion's cold disdain, Cynara backhands a blow to Salome's face early in the battle. Right: Trapped between Cynara's lithe, powerful legs, Salome squirms helplessly as she's choked by the champion. Below: Cynara tries to break free of Salome's grasp late in the wild battle. The blonde's magnificent body is beginning to weaken badly.

When the first girl was summoned from the bedroom, all conversation ceased. Cynara never looked more magnificent as she strode out into the middle of the floor. Her lithe muscles, tensed for action, made her seem like a splendid lioness poised for the hunt.

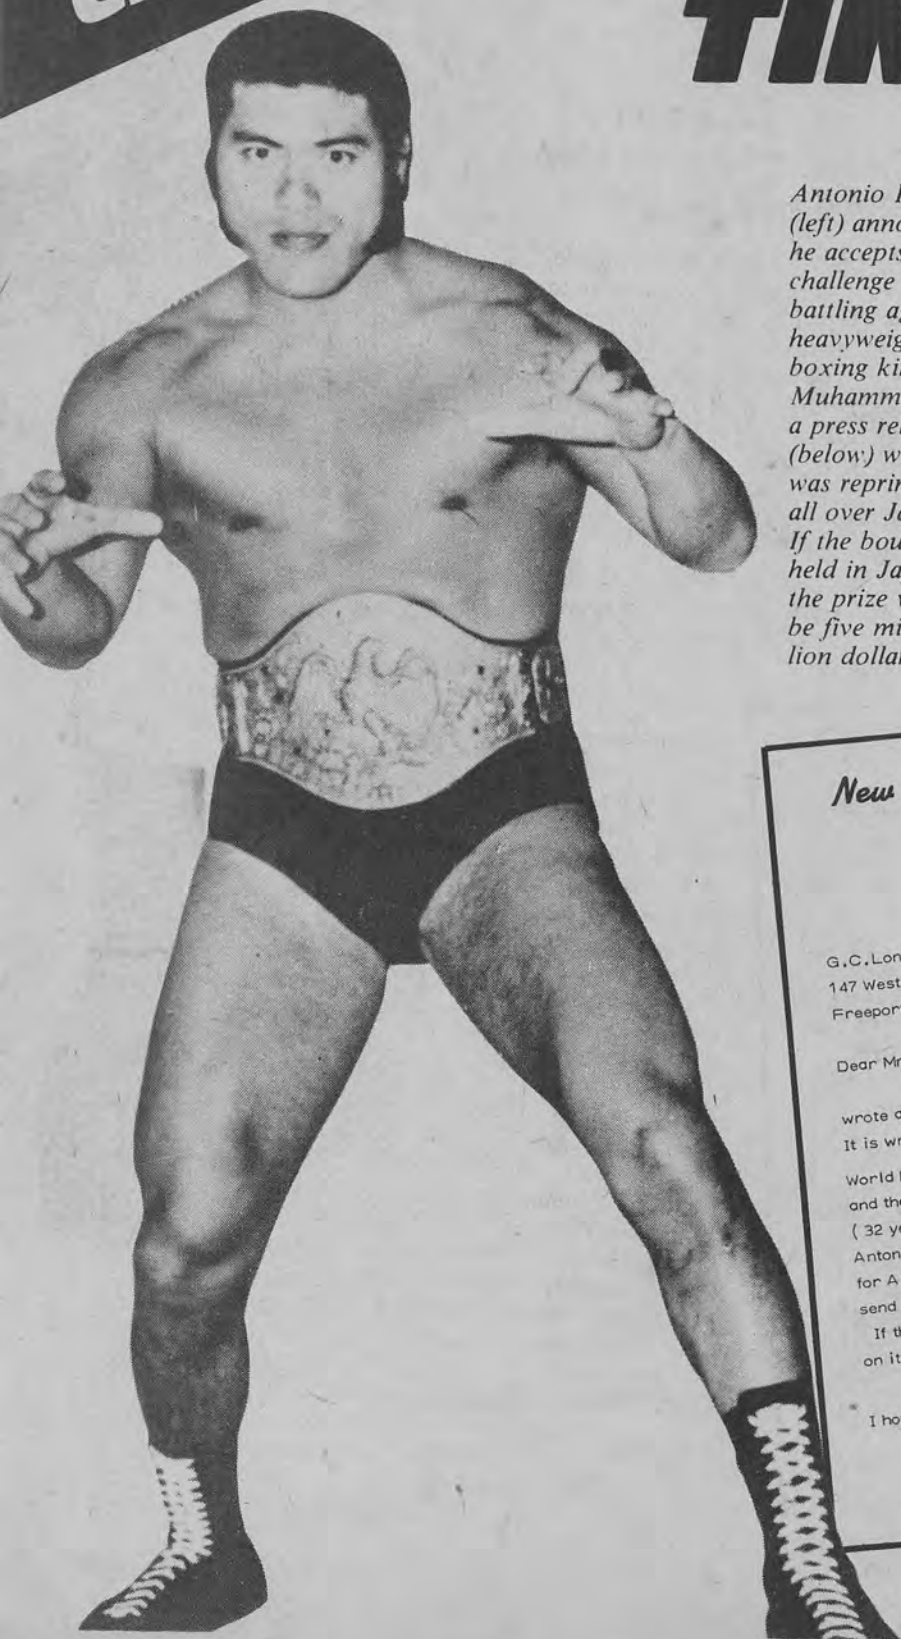

Her eyes were two slits of hatred as she saw Salome enter the living room. The brunette slithered into view with leopard grace. Her long legs seemed to let her glide across the carpet as she came within a foot of her opponent. The room was cloaked in silence as the two women stared into each other's eyes, trying to penetrate the veneer of confidence to find the fear. Just watching them size each other up made every man's pulse race, the tension they created was so great.

Dave Moll, the organizer of apartment house wrestling, finally brought everyone back to the business at hand by stepping between the two girls and announcing, "This match will be two out of three falls. The winner will be designated the new apartment house wrestling champion." He smiled and added, "The loser will have our undying gratitude."

INOKI ANSWERS
MUHAMMAD ALI'S CHALLENGE!

"I'M TO BATTLE TIME...AN

Antonio Inoki (left) announces he accepts the challenge of battling against heavyweight boxing king, Muhammad Ali, in a press release (below) which was reprinted all over Japan. If the bout is held in Japan, the prize will be five million dollars!

MUHAMMAD ALI, if you think Joe Frazier and Ken Norton have given you the hardest fights of your career, you'd better not consider taking on Japan's number one wrestler—Antonio Inoki—for any amount of money. He says he'll wipe the canvas with you!

Ali has proven to the world he is its greatest heavyweight boxer. He proved it by knocking out George Foreman, an athlete considered to be a super human. After regaining the title from Foreman, Ali challenged the greatest wrestlers in Europe and the Far East, saying, "I've beaten the best boxers in the world. I've beaten Joe Frazier. I've beaten George Foreman.

Dear Mr. Apter,

On the 22nd April '75, one of the newspaper companies wrote an article at the top page. It is written like this below.

World Heavy Weight Boxing Champion : Mohammed Ali (32 years old) and the former NWF Heavy Weight Wrestling Champion : Antonio Inoki (32 years old) will have a " Death Match ".
Antonio Inoki has accepted it. NET TV station in Japan has been waiting for Ali's acceptance. NET and New Japan Pro-Wrestling Co., Ltd will send a person in charge of the match to the U.S. soon to realize it.
If the match is held in Japan one of the sponsors will put a big prize on it. The prize which is ¥ 1,500,000,000 (= $ 5,000,000)

I hope you will consider this article to put it on your magazine.

Yours faithfully,

Hisashi Shinma.

READY YOU...ANY PLACE!"

The real battle of the century may take place in Japan if Antonio Inoki gets his wish. He has just challenged Muhammad Ali to a bout!

I've beaten Ken Norton, Joe Bugner and Floyd Patterson. I whopped Sonny Liston when they said it couldn't be done. There's just no boxers left for me to take on. But I've seen some of those big wrestlers in Europe and Japan, and I'll bet they could give me a good battle."

Ali proposed a $10,000,000 battle between himself and one of the Far East's top wrestlers. The offer was immediately accepted by Inoki, whom experts agree is Japan's finest athlete.

NET TV in Japan is extremely interested in promoting the match, and is ready to send an agent to the United States in the event Ali accepts Inoki's challenge. However, they've turned down Muhammad's initial proposal of three billion yen ($10,000,000), and replaced that with an offer of one billion, five hundred million yen ($5,000,000). All that is needed is Ali's answer.

If he does accept Inoki's challenge, there is no word yet on how the money will be divided. There is a possibility it

Dear Mr. Mohammed Ali, a great world boxing champion,

I think that you are regarded as a great Boxing champion in the world by everybody. However, in my opinion, the champion in the field of fighting games is Pro-wrestling.

The way of your challenging to the Japanese was really unpleasant to me, No. 1 wrestler in Japan. So, I will accept your challenge anytime.

I have already received two inquiries for telecasting fight between you and me, for which you proposed US $10,000,000 from NET TV Station in Japan and Toyo Broadcasting Station in Korea.

I am not able to presume that you challenged to the Japanese by way of a joke. If I have a chance to fight with you, I could make you sleep on the canvas within ten minutes without fail.

I hope you say "OK" with courage to my challenge without delay if you claim to be the greatest champion in the Boxing world.

I wish to add to say that you will fight with me with bare hands and that I am ready to challenge you at anytime, at any place, wherever you desire.

Yours faithfully,

Kanji Inoki

Muhammad Ali (right) has yet to respond to the challenge sent to him by Inoki (below). Ali has been quick to accept the challenges of other boxers, though. With all Ali's loud bragging about how he'll beat Joe Frazier, Ken Norton, and George Foreman, he has yet to say anything about Inoki. Is Ali running away from the biggest mat star in all of the Orient?

Left: Inoki is ecstatic as he receives the cheers of the crowd after he wins the N.W.F. championship. These same fans will cheer even louder if Inoki can conquer Ali in a savage "Death Match."

Right: Muhammad Ali is training to meet all who challenge him, or so he says. The heavyweight king has kept strangely quiet about answering Inoki's request to meet him in a bare-fisted bout to the finish!

will be winner take all in a "Death Match."

In sending to this magazine a copy of a letter which he mailed to Muhammad Ali, Inoki said, "I think that you are a great Boxing champion. However, in my opinion, the champion in the field of fighting games is professional wrestling."

In his letter to Ali, Inoki also stated, "I am not able to presume that you challenged the Japanese by way of a joke. If I have a chance to fight with you, I can make you sleep on the canvas within 10 minutes without fail."

Antonio is not kidding. He takes pride in his athletic ability, and believes that in man-to-man competition, with no holds barred, he can whip Ali or any other man placed in front of him.

"I am tougher than any man alive," says Inoki, "and I can take any man's punch. From what I've seen of Ali, he doesn't hit hard enough to make me blink. I would like to fight Ali with bare fists anywhere in the world, at any time he desires."

In a free-style fight, Ali would have to be considered the underdog, especially against a man the size of Inoki (6-3½, 246 pounds). Antonio would be favored not just because of his size, but because of his familiarity with the use of the entire body as a weapon—not just fists. Muhammad might find it quite hard in concentrating on not only Antonio's hands, but his feet as well.

However, a few years ago Ali took karate lessons, so he is not exactly a stranger to the art of free-style fighting. Wayne Kelly, an undefeated American light heavyweight professional boxer, has seen nearly every one of Ali's fights since 1960, the year which Muhammad turned pro. Wayne also has seen the heavyweight champion performing karate, and says of Ali, "He is an amazing athlete. I think he is one man who could've done well in any sport he wanted to participate in."

Then he added, "But I spent close to three years overseas in the army, and got to see Inoki in action on several occasions. Quite simply, he's great. When he says he's the greatest athlete in Japan, believe him. He really is! I think a free-style match between the two would really be something else."

Who would Wayne pick to win such a match?

"I'd have to go with Inoki," says Kelly quite frankly. "It's his experience as a free-style wrestler and fighter that makes me lean towards him. If Ali and Inoki were to engage in a boxing match, I'd give it to Ali hands down. It's his sport, and he's the best in what he does. But in a free-style, "Death Match," whatever you call it, Inoki has gotta win."

When Antonio says about Ali, "I can make you sleep on the canvas within 10 minutes without fail," he's not kidding. He believes he'll have very little trouble with Muhammad.

"Part of Ali's tactic is psyching a man out before the match," said Inoki. "I can't be psyched out. I get mentally ready before every match by meditating, and concentrating on nothing but my battle plan. I think about what I must do on offense, and I think about what I must do on defense. Ali scares most of his opponents before the match even begins. Antonio Inoki will hear nothing. Right there I've got him beat."

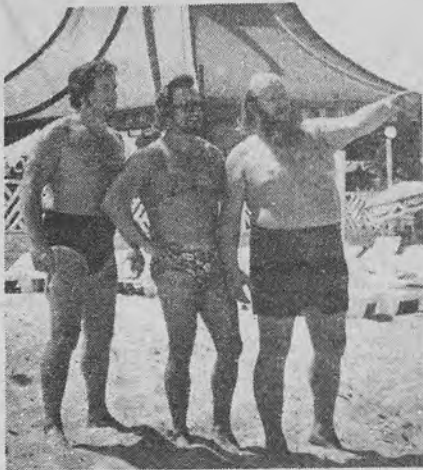

At first, Inoki declined to talk about what his battle plan would be against Ali. Then, after thinking about it for awhile, he said, "It is foolish for me to hide anything. With my talent, I should have nothing to hide."

"Physically and mentally I am not afraid of Muhammad. I will concede one thing Ali has over me is hand speed. But that's it. My foot speed is as fast—if not faster—than his."

"One thing I will not do is walk directly into his punches. Not that I'm afraid of them hurting me. It's just that enough of them can cut a man. What I'm doing is taking away his ability to psyche me out, and also his ability to cut me. I am a master at the flying dropkick and with that move, I'll take him off his feet."

"Once Ali is down, I consider him absolutely helpless. He's then at my mercy. It's then just a question of how much punishment he can withstand. And believe me, I can hit as hard as any man alive."

If you know just how talented Antonio Inoki is, you can believe him when he says, "When the world's greatest boxer meets me, the world's greatest wrestler, I will then be known as 'The World's Greatest Fighting Machine.'" □

"You'd better believe that's true," yelled Valentine in his dressing room after his match with Jack Brisco.

"I went out there tonight and gave that man a whipping—a solid, sound thrashing—and the referee still found a way to give Brisco the victory. I tell you, it's unfair!"

There are two versions of the story. One is Greg Valentine's. The other is the side Dugan and Brisco tell. Depending on how objectively you look at each side, Dugan and Brisco's appears to be the more realistic.

As Valentine tells it, "I was really giving Brisco a going over. Beating him from corner to corner, you know what I mean. I was never so confident of victory before in my life. I felt that way before the match, I felt that way during the match, and I still feel that way.

"I don't think I defeated Brisco—I know it, the fans know it, Dugan knows it, and Brisco knows it. I used my youth and stamina against him. I battled him head to head, finally wearing him out. I ended it by body-slammimg him to the mat, then I pinned the sucker, with Dugan even tapping me on the back to let me know the match was over. I won Brisco's belt, which I truly deserve.

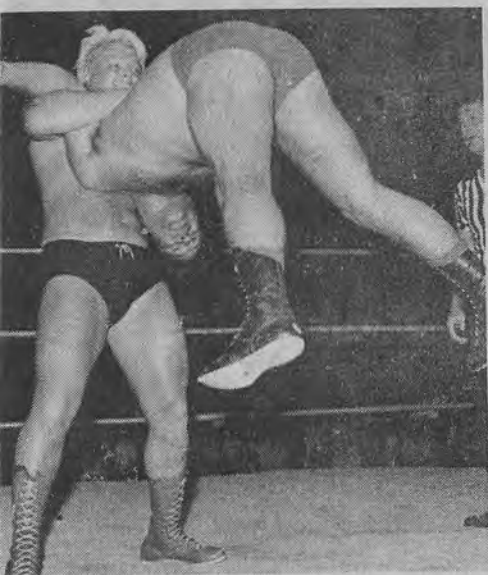

"The next thing I know, as I'm proudly displaying the championship belt, Brisco comes up behind me, taps me on the shoulder, slams me on the nose, and then decks me with a dropkick. Suddenly, the crowd is screaming like crazy, and Dugan is raising Brisco's hand in victory, with the championship belt and all. Dugan told me he never tapped me on the back to end the match—that I prematurely got up thinking I had won.

"Well, that was bad enough, because he definitely tapped me on my shoulder. No question about it. But then, and this is what makes me burn, I heard Brisco say to Dugan, 'Thanks, cousin. We gotta keep it (the belt) in the family.' Can you beat that! Johnny "Red Shoes" Dugan and Jack Brisco are related! With any other referee in there I'd be champion."

Brisco and Dugan agree with Valentine—but only up to the point where Valentine had Brisco on the verge of being pinned.

"I tell you," said Jack, "the kid is rough—real rough! I had me hands full with him. But matches are won on brains as well as brawn. Tonight I beat him with a combination of both. He fell for one of wrestling's oldest tricks—the tap on the shoulder.

"I DON'T NEED A LOUSY BELT TO PROVE I'M THE CH

"He had me down and nearly pinned. If it was any other wrestler, Valentine would have won easy. After Dugan's first slam on the mat, I quickly slammed my hand on the mat, then tapped Greg on the shoulder. He simply got confused, and thought the match was over. He was excited, and it's understandable. He thought he had won the belt.

"Dugan tried to tell him the match was not over, but Greg didn't hear anything. He was overjoyed at the fact he thought he was the new champion. I, knowing the match wasn't over, kept my cool, kept my composure, and resumed wrestling. What was I supposed to do, go over to him and say, 'Listen Greg, the match isn't over, I tricked you. So put down the belt and let's continue wrestling! Not on your life! I told you, this is a sport of quick thinking as well as raw power. I got up, continued wrestling, and beat him. Greg learned a lesson tonight. He went to school, as they say.'"

As far as Valentine's charge of Brisco and Dugan being related, Jack said, "That's ridiculous. I must have hit Greg harder than I realize. Sure I called the referee 'Cousin.' I call lots of people 'Cousin.' And when I told him 'We gotta keep it in the family,' I wasn't referring at all to Johnny's family. I just meant the belt belongs to the family that has it now—the Brisco family. Dugan and I are related no more than Valentine and I are related!"

"It's the way Jack stated it," said Dugan. "That's funny, Greg thinking I'm related to Brisco. He really got clipped some shot in the face by Brisco. A blow like that, followed by a dropkick has got to make you at least temporarily irrational.

"I'll tell you this—it was a smart maneuver that Brisco pulled off on Valentine. In my opinion, it was the only thing he could have done, and it was successful. Valentine really fell for a sucker move."

Storming around his dressing room, Greg still didn't buy the denial of both Brisco and Dugan that they are not related. "That's a lot of bull!" screamed Valentine. "I know what I heard and the way it was meant to be. Dugan and Brisco are related. They're cousins! I want a rematch as soon as possible!"

Then he added, "But next time I don't want any referee—wrestler cousin team against me!" □

And that's just one of the many letters which have been urging Pedro's return.

"He'll be back!" the eastern promoters assure. "As soon as Pedro is through with various commitments we will bid for his return. We hope he'll come right home. Yes, we say home because this is where Pedro belongs. And with any luck he'll be returning soon."

It looks like Pedro's the only one who can make the decision.

"It's going to be great going east again," Pedro says. "And I hope while I'm there my California fans will beg for my return west. This is a

To you, Dave Moll, give me that "knockout" woman, Tara, for many matches to come.

REPRESENTATIVE OPINION

Believe it or not, this letter represents the wishes of 50 guys who would like to see Tara become part of the apartment house wrestling group ("You Be The Judge! [SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975]).

The hellcat blonde Courtney sinks her long nails into the voluptuous breasts of her darkly beautiful and cruel foe, Tara.

We are all crazy about her. We congratulate Courtney on her courage, but we think she's no match for Tara. We ask Dave Moll to keep sexy Tara in action, because she's a top gal and surely a future champion. If he doesn't respect our demand, we'll make him an offer he can't refuse!

NICK THOMPSON & THE GUYS
Calgary, Canada

BLONDE BOOSTER

I'd like to state that I think Courtney should definitely become an apartment house wrestler and Tara should also be allowed to compete ("You Be the Judge!" [SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975]).

They're not the best looking girls as compared with others in previous issues, but they've got super shapes and seem to battle with more cruelty than most of the other girls.

TIM NAGEL
Fort Lee, N.J.

GREAT GIRLS

I just finished "You Be The Judge!" (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975) and am again delighted by your coverage of apartment house wrestling. I get a big kick out of this section.

The girls are great—very good looking with great bodies. As far as I'm concerned, Dave Moll, both Tara and Courtney are okay. Both should be added to the roster. They bring a special fire to wrestling.

DON JONES
New York,

Editor's Note: Dave Moll asks us to tell all SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING readers that because of their hundreds of letters praising either or both women, Tara and Courtney are regular members on the roster of apartment house wrestling.

IDENTIFICATION

Oh, can I ever relate to the article in SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975, entitled, "The Night Jack Brisco Lost His Trunks!" It brought back some unpleasant memories of a similar experience I had two years ago.

I was wrestling in an amateur match. During the heated battle, my opponent deliberately ripped off my briefs. I felt like crawling into a hole!

I sympathize with Jack. I know what it's like to have everyone laughing at you.

STAN BARKER
Baltimore, MD

PROVE THE POINT

I loved the story, "The Fans Love Affair With Dean Ho" in SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/July 1975.

How about one on his equally great partner, Tony Garea? Not enough is written about these two talented wrestlers.

JACQUI RENAUD
Haverhill, MA

ANY MEANS NECESSARY

I just finished reading the article, "Dory Jr.'s New Pledge" (SPORTS REVIEW WRESTLING/September 1975) and have come to the conclusion Dory is 100% correct in his thinking. If he must cripple Brisco to win the N.W.A. title, then so be it!

I have witnessed three title matches between Brisco and Funk since Jack won the title. In every one, Brisco used all kinds of unethical tactics to keep the belt. Dory relies on scientific ability to defeat his opponents. Brisco realizes this and wins in the only way possible, through questionable tactics.

Therefore, one must fight fire with fire. The only way for Dory Funk Jr. to win back the N.W.A. title is to become more aggressive and not let Brisco have the chance to pull a lot of tricks on him.

After all, the sport of wrestling has not had a true champion since Dory Jr. And it probably never will!

ANDRE THE GIANT

Above: Killer Kowalski cruelly kicks Andre in the groin. Is it any wonder Kowalski is hated by the Giant? Below: Dory Funk Jr. is caught in The Sheik's camel clutch. Andre wants to stop all of Sheik's tactics.

and the one most anxious to drive me from wrestling. He has stated many times he must cripple me and end my career. To defend myself, I've got to make sure Baba is driven from the sport. I don't like to do it, but there's no other choice left for me.

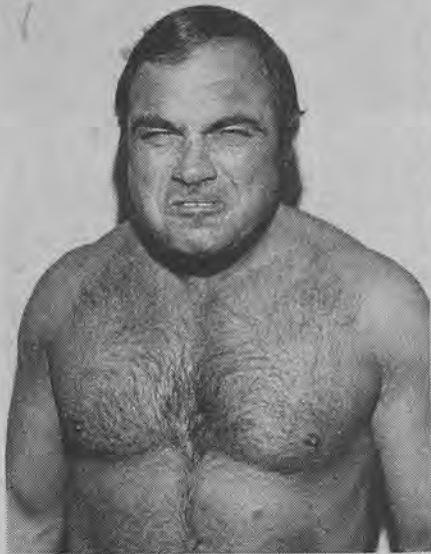

One man I'd be proud to drive from every wrestling arena in the world is Abdullah the Butcher. For years, this man has sliced up opponents, leaving them battered and bloody. At no instance has he ever shown himself to be an athlete. All he has ever done is be a bully and a savage. It's men like him who turn the sport I love into a playground for sadists. I should get a medal for driving him from the sport, though satisfaction for a job well done will be reward enough.

The fourth man on my list has been responsible for more men being crippled and tortured than any other man alive. Sheik's record of terror is unequalled. Seeing the names of those whom he has burned and maimed is shocking and horrible. It's enough to make any decent person sick.

I know many have tried to drive Sheik from the sport in the past—and failed miserably. He's the most ruthlessly dangerous man in the sport. I don't make this challenge lightly. But it's a challenge I feel must be made. No man can consider himself a professional wrestler without wishing to rid this man from the sport.

A man whom I've despised for years is Killer Kowalski. Whenever the two of us wrestle, it becomes a war to the finish. There are few things in wrestling I'm as proud to remember as Kowalski's body falling limp from pain I've inflicted.

To watch Kowalski glory in making an opponent grovel from his clawhold is to know this man has got to be driven from wrestling. I'm not the only grappler who'd do anything in the world to make sure this guy never tortures an innocent athlete again. I'm just happy to join men I respect in this crusade.

Because John Tolos has betrayed so many opponents, Andre feels he should be justly punished!

I suppose another guy on most scientific wrestlers' wanted lists is John Tolos. There's no more treacherous man in the entire sport. Anyone with his history of betraying partners must be eliminated from competition.

I feel very strongly about this. Wrestlers form a community of shared experiences and trust. Because we lead a different life from most people, we have to depend a great deal on those in our community. Treachery will destroy the entire fabric of the society which our lives have developed. Tolos threatens my very way of life.

Above: Baba the Giant comes close to breaking the arm of the Oregon Lumberjack. Andre must defeat Baba, for Baba's after Andre!
Below: Perhaps Andre's bitterest enemy is Don Leo Jonathan. Their feud has been long and bloody—and shows no signs of letting up!

To wrestle Ox Baker is to hate him. I remember being shocked by his savage tactics and maniacal behavior. He just keeps coming at you, trying to break as many bones as possible. To him this isn't a proud profession but a blood-sport. Men like this have no place in wrestling.

I remember one match against Baker when, with the help of a foreign object, he sliced my face into shreds. With blood pouring into my eyes, I saw him grinning madly through his grotesque moustache. To erase that picture from my memory, I must drive this man from the sport. Until then, his face will haunt me wherever I go.

There's only one tag team I want to beat in a handicap match. In fact, doing it might be considered the crowning achievement of my career. I want to wrestle the Blackjacks—the sooner the better.

Lanza and Mulligan are to my mind everything a tag team shouldn't be. I don't think any other two men work together as cruelly or brutally. There's no excuse for their actions. I've seen the two of them gang up on some helpless victim. It's enough to make anyone want to make sure these guys are taught a lesson they'll never forget. There's much innocent blood to be avenged.

I want them both at the same time. Not only will I batter them senseless, but I'll humiliate them in the process. After being beaten conclusively by one man, they'll be too embarrassed to show their faces in a wrestling arena—even with a ticket!

A man who has never shown a shred of decency to anyone is Baron Von Raschke. His heroes are the men who laid waste to my beloved France. I have seen firsthand what men like Von Raschke can do. I'm determined he won't do it to the sport I love.

Baron has said some reprehensible things about a lot of people. I plan to shut his trap once and for all!

The man who may not belong on this list is Ernie Ladd. Every so often this huge grappler does something so fine that I believe I've misjudged him. Then he does something so reprehensible that one thinks it must be a different person!

The cruel savagery of Abdullah the Butcher is known to all fans of wrestling. Can Andre end his bloody reign of ugly terror?

So I've included Ladd only for how he's wrestled against me. And in those matches, he's been a crazed savage! He has given me some of my toughest battles. A man of his size and strength is always dangerous. Against me, he knows no limits! And because of that, I'll include him on this list.

Tomorrow, I may hear about something which will make me sorry his name appears here. Then again, I may hear something which will make me regret saying I'm not sure.

Each man on this list has a good reason for being here. I hope none were included for reasons less than honorable. I tried to be as fair as possible.

This is each man's public warning. I, Andre the Giant, am determined to drive you from the sport of wrestling. Be on your guards! ☐

Has a lovely sound to it, doesn't it? Super Destroyer, the world's greatest!

He seems to believe no one would dare refuse to participate in this contest. Thinking everyone who wears a mask is waiting for just this opportunity, Super Destroyer has already sent out invitations to every Masked Wrestler he can think of. The best reply he's received so far is a polite "no," but he remains confident even after this universal rejection.

"They may not want to do it now," he declares, "but once they read this story about my challenge, they'll have no choice but to accept. And once they're forced into my battle royal, they'll become my victims!"

Super Destroyer is doing more than talk about this match. He's been tirelessly mapping out battle royal strategies and practicing maneuvers. He's devoting most of his energies toward this one end. It's the only thing which interests him anymore. Even the chance of winning a major championship doesn't interest him anymore.

"A lot of guys become champion," the grappler contends, "but only once in history will an event of this magnitude be held. My battle royal will dwarf anything that comes before it or will follow! At the end of the match, my name will be the biggest in wrestling! It'll be the biggest name in sports! It'll be a step down to even consider a championship!"

"There's only one match I'm really looking forward to. It's the MASKED WRESTLER BATTLE ROYAL!"

Super Destroyer may have a long while to wait. Mr. Wrestling II explained why he thinks the whole idea is a harebrained scheme.

"Just because I wear a mask," he says, "doesn't make me a different kind of wrestler. The goals I have are the same as every unmasked wrestler—to become the champion, the top of my profession."

Mil Mascaras (above) and Mr. Wrestling II (below) are wanted.

"Wondering who is the best masked wrestler is as silly as wondering who is the best Italian wrestler or the best blue-eyed wrestler. It's one sport an only one man can be the best at it. Separating it into categories is stupid and a waste of time, as far as I'm concerned.

"Wrestlers wear masks for various reasons. It's not a decision a man makes lightly, nor something he can easily give up. I can't think of any masked wrestler who'd risk his mask in the kind of circus Super Destroyer suggests. A battle royal is far too dependent on luck to really prove anything. The whole concept is absurd. I'll be shocked if anybody accepts the challenge."

So far, no masked wrestler has accepted. Still, Super Destroyer plans for the day when the arena will be overflowing with masked wrestlers. And he dreams of being the last man to wear a mask as the crowd cheers him as the greatest—and last—masked wrestler of them all!

ROOKIE MANAGER

perfectly coordinated machine. Even their detractors can't deny the Love Brothers have a personality of their own.

"So my job is to take my knowledge and use it to complement the already brilliant style of the Love Brothers. This is a very delicate task. If I try to assert my personality too strongly, I could destroy the magnificence of this wrestling machine. Yet I can't be too careful because then I wouldn't be doing my job.

"Being a manager for a great team is an incredibly difficult task. However, in all modesty, I think I'm succeeding where most others would fail. In fact, I'm doing better than anyone could expect!"

Many people have accused Costello of succeeding with his tag team by interfering in the matches. There are a lot of wrestlers who are willing to show their scars as proof of the accusations. As might be expected, Al denies the charge.

"You don't break rules," the manager says calmly, "when there's no reason for it. And I don't have to interfere. By the time of the match, the Love Brothers don't need my help. If they did, then I wouldn't be doing my job. The two of them, under my guidance, can defeat anyone. They don't need my help once the match starts."

For years the Love Brothers have been infamous for being rulebreaking grapplers, coldly maiming and crippling opponents. As a wrestler, Al Costello shared the same reputation. Bringing his genius to the already formidable Love Brothers could make this team the most fearsome in wrestling.

It could also mean a reign of terror which would stagger the imagination of even the most hardened wrestling observer! □ gym and go over holds and maneuvers.

"It was the greatest education," the young man declares, "any wrestler has ever had. Edouard's great physical ability makes people forget he's a brilliant strategist. What he doesn't know hasn't been invented. His mind has the speed of a computer. When he's wrestling, he'll be confronted with a situation in which there may be 30 possible moves. He'll sift through them all and choose the perfect one 99.0 percent of the time. And the whole process takes a fraction of a second!"

"I've been in awe of this brilliance from the first day. He's showed me facets of tag team competition I didn't even suspect existed. The training period was one of the greatest experiences of my life!"

Edouard smiles as he listens to his young partner, then adds, "Raymond isn't giving himself the credit he deserves. Many of the things I do with him could be done with no other. I've been waiting for years to find a man with Raymond's agility and strength. Now that I've discovered him, all my plans are finally being realized. Raymond is the partner I've been searching for throughout my career."

Watching the two of them wrestle, one is irresistibly drawn to their sheer enjoyment of competition. They're elated to be partners. When they succeed in executing a particularly difficult maneuver, it's as if something splendid had occurred. They are that excited about what they're doing!

"Edouard Carpentier and Raymond Rougeau are a credit to the sport," long-time fan Sandy Herrick said after watching one of their recent matches. "At a time when most tag teams are ruthless animals, these two are athletes in superb condition. Watching them is the most exciting event in wrestling today.

"They've got it all. It's the idealization of what the tag team should be. Carpentier and Rougeau are perfection."

There are many in Canada who agree with Sandy's estimation. Soon, the entire wrestling world may be saying the exact same thing. For Edouard and Raymond are the magnificent men of tag team wrestling!

Losing Your Hair Hair Thinning Do You Have Dandruff Itchy Scalp?

THE COMATE HAIR AND SCALP TREATMENT MAY MEAN THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SAVING YOUR HAIR AND LOSING THE REST OF IT.

Baldness is simply a matter of subtraction. When the number of new hairs fail to equal the number of falling hair, you end up minus your head of hair (bald). Why not avoid baldness by preventing unnecessary loss of hair? Why not eliminate needless causes of hair loss and give Nature a chance to grow more hair for you? Many of the country's dermatologists and other foremost hair and scalp specialists believe that seborrhea, a common scalp disorder, causes hair loss. What is seborrhea? It is a bacterial infection of the scalp that can eventually cause permanent damage to the hair follicles. Its visible evidence is "thinning" hair. Its end result is baldness. Its symptoms are dry, itchy scalp, dandruff, oily hair, head scales, and progressive hair loss.

So, if you are beginning to notice that your forehead is getting larger, beginning to notice that there is too much hair on your comb, beginning to be worried about the dryness of your hair, the itchiness of your scalp, the ugly dandruff — these are Nature's Red Flags warning you of impending baldness. Even if you have been losing your hair for some time, don't let seborrhea rob you of the rest of your hair.

Male pattern baldness is the cause of the great majority of causes of baldness and excessive hair loss. In such cases neither the Comate treatment nor any other treatment is effective.

Note To Doctors
Doctors, clinics and hospitals interested in scalp disorders can obtain professional samples and literature on written request.

HOW COMATE WORKS ON YOUR SCALP

The development of an amazing hair and scalp medicine called Comate is specifically designed to control seborrhea and stop the hair loss it causes.

"My hair had been coming out and breaking off for about 21 years and Comate has improved it so much."
—Mrs. J. E. Lisbon, Ga.

"It really has improved my hair in one week, and I know what the result will be in three more. I am so happy over it, I had to write!"
—Mrs. H. J. McComb, Miss.

"I've used a good many different 'tonics.' But until I tried Comate, I had no results. Now I'm rid of dandruff, and itchy scalp. My hair looks thicker."
—G. E., Alberta, Canada

"I used to comb out a handful of hair at a time. Now I only get 4-6 on my comb. The terrible itching has stopped."
—L.H.M., Los Angeles, Cal.

"My hair has improved. It used to fall out by handfuls. Comate stopped it from falling out."
—D.M.H., Oklahoma City, Okla.

It offers the opportunity to thousands of men and women losing their hair to bacterial infection to reverse the battle they are now losing on their scalps. By stopping this obstacle to normal hair growth, new hairs can grow as Nature intended.

This is how Comate works: (1) It combines in a single scalp treatment the essential corrective factors for normal hair growth. By its rubefacient action it stimulates blood circulation to the scalp, thereby supplying more nutrition to still-alive hair follicles. (2) As a highly effective antiseptic, Comate kills on contact the seborrhea-causing scalp bacteria believed to be a cause of baldness. (3) By its keratolytic action it dissolves ugly dandruff. By tending to normalize the lubrication of the hair shaft it corrects excessively dry and oily hair. It eliminates head scales & scalp itch.

In short, Comate offers you in a single treatment the best that modern medicine has developed for the preservation of your hair. There is no excuse today except ignorance for any man or woman to neglect seborrhea and pay the penalty of hair loss.

COMATE IS UNCONDITIONALLY GUARANTEED

To you we offer this UNCONDITIONAL GUARANTEE. Treat your scalp to Comate in your own home, following the simple directions. See for yourself in your own mirror how after a few treatments, Comate makes your hair look thicker and alive. How Comate ends your dandruff, stops your scalp itch. How Comate gives your hair a chance to grow. Most men and women report results after the first treatment, some take longer. But we say this to you. If, for any reason, you are not completely satisfied with the improvement in your own case — AT ANY TIME — return the unused portion for a prompt refund. No questions asked.

But don't delay. For the sake of your hair, order Comate today. Nothing — not even Comate — can grow hair from dead follicles. Fill out the coupon now, and take the first step toward a good head of hair again.

APARTMENT HOUSE

A roundhouse right thrown by Salome (above) sends the blonde Cynara sprawling across the carpet. The brunette battler springs to her feet, leaping in the air to come down hard upon her agonized foe (below).

And five seconds later, the most titanic struggle in apartment house wrestling history was underway!

True to her word, Cynara charged at her opponent. The two girls locked in combat as they rolled across the carpet. They were a flurry of limbs as the battling grew furious. Then Cynara, her blue eyes flaming with excitement, drove her knee hard into Salome's groin. The brunette doubled over and Cynara grabbed her in a headlock.

The brunette squirmed and struggled to free herself from the blonde's powerful grasp. Weakened by agony, her punches into Cynara's mid-section and back were unable to force the hold broken. It was the champion herself, trying to go for a quick pin, who broke the hold.

Cynara attempted to roll Salome over on her back. However, she used so much force that both girls went toppling across the carpet. Salome was free and determined to turn the match around.

With the force of a starving cat, Salome ran at her foe's mid-section, forcing the blonde beauty to topple to the carpet. However, Cynara's long legs wrapped themselves like snakes around their victim and twisted Salome around. The stunned brunette couldn't defend against this lightning turn of events and was helpless to avoid the first pin. The champion was ahead, one fall to none.

Cynara's body becomes a gorgeously cruel wrestling machine as she digs her nails into her opponent's neck and arm, while at the same time rendering Salome helpless by chocking the brunette beauty.

Salome knew she could now afford no mistakes. The luxuries to which she had become accustomed would be taken from her without a second thought. Everything she wished would become impossible.

At the start of the second fall

Salome came out feet flying. Again and again she drove her heels deep into Cynara's belly and groin. This time she made sure her victim was sufficiently weakened before she pounced.

Cynara's magnificent body grew limp from the punishment, and for the first time ever she looked helplessly frail while unsuccessfully trying to ward off the blows. Slowly, she sank to her knees, her fiery eyes turned glassy and dull.

Cynara toppled on her back, inviting Salome to pin her. But the brunette was taking no chances. Leaping high into the air, turning her body into a beautiful missile, she came crashing down on the weakened champion. Cynara couldn't hold back the cry of agony. Salome then spread the weight of her body upon the blonde victim.

The match was tied.

Cynara's excellent conditioning came to her rescue. Somehow, she shook the pain from her body like a duck shakes off water. Caught off-guard, she had been badly beaten. However, that was past. A champion looks only to the future.

For 17 savage minutes the two girls battled to become the apartment house wrestling champion.

Their bodies were twisted and pounded. The girls absorbed more punishment than any human being should be able to suffer. Yet they took it and came back like jungle cats, determined to pound each other senseless.

Then Cynara grabbed Salome from behind. But before the champion could take advantage of it, Salome grabbed her blonde foe and flipped her across the room. Cynara landed with a dull thud against the wall, her head smacking the expensive wood paneling.

A special excitement filled the penthouse. Cynara was obviously hurt. The blow on the skull had made her dizzy. Her magnificent, lithe legs were wobbling from weakness.

Salome knew she was only seconds away from winning. Yet she found herself at the last moment watching, like everyone else, this splendid woman trying to regain her power, her cunning. As she struggled against doom, Cynara was at her most magnificent.

However, even the most famous of all apartment house wrestlers, the sport's first champion, cannot win against all odds. Salome flipped the blonde onto her back. Three seconds later there was a new apartment house wrestling champion.

Groggy, beaten but head held high, Cynara wandered back to the bedroom. There was an admiring silence for this fantastic creature, even from those who had wagered a small fortune against her. As the door closed behind the beaten woman, the apartment house wrestling fans realized they had just seen the end of its first golden era. □ him in the groin! Wave after wave of pain coursed through the Chief's body. He grew dizzy and his eyes couldn't focus.

He still wasn't sure what had happened when he felt himself lifted in the air and hurled over the ropes. Then he felt the cold, sharp pain of his skull bouncing off the concrete. A new wave of agony joined the one already spreading like shock waves through his body.

Still, his instincts refused to let him quit. Wobbling, pathetic, but proud, Jay struggled to his knees. Then, through the pain, he heard the referee counting him out. The official had regained his senses and was doing his job. He couldn't have known what foul tactics had led to the tortured Strongbow struggling outside the ring.

As the referee tolled his count over the stricken grappler, it became obvious Arion would be given the victory. There was no human way Jay was ever going to be able to get back into the battle.

Arion was awarded the victory. The feud between the two men, which originated when Spiros betrayed Jay during a tag team match, is now more bitter than ever.

Back in the dressing room, Strongbow said, "I've never wanted to punish any man as badly as I want to batter Arion. He's the only man I'd be willing to sacrifice the rest of my career in the course of crippling him! There's no one in wrestling I hate more than Spiros Arion!"

From now on, every match between these two men could be the last match for either of them—or both! □
